Financial Report

The March 2013 (13th month) and April 2013 financial reports were received.

Director's Report

Director Bohrer reported on the following:

- An individual's library privileges were suspended for six months due to theft of another library user's property. A police report was filed and the property recovered.
- A review of the usage and collection statistics for the 2012-2103 fiscal year.
- The library received two public relations awards from the American Library Association for our Counting the Days to Kindergarten materials and the new patron orientation booklet/packet. The orientation booklet was made possible due to a generous donation from the Friends of the Library.
- An update on the civic center paving project. The drive-up window and book drops will be unavailable from May 11, 2013 through June 11, 2013, which is a change from the original dates.

The Director's Report was received.
