Director's Report

Director Bohrer reported on the following:

- A non-resident patron's library privileges were permanently suspended for violation of the Library's Rules of Conduct and the Library's Access to Electronic Information Policy.
- The civic center paving project will be scheduled in such a way as to not interrupt the 75th anniversary celebration on October 12, 2013.
- The handicap accessibility project began at the Westacres Branch on September 30, 2013 as planned.
- The mobile version of the Encore cataloged is now available.
- The iPads have now been installed to replace the computers reserved for youth educational games at both facilities.
- The podium in the meeting room at Main has been re-wired and an alarm/sensor installed to alert staff when movement occurs which may damage wiring. The meeting review policy will be reviewed and possibly revised in light of this new capability and brought to the Board for consideration at a future meeting.
- The endowment mailing will occur in early November 2013. The 2013-2014 annual report will be included in the mailing.
- Five display units, similar to ones used at our Main Library, will be purchased for the Westacres Branch from the Capital Improvement and Automation Development Fund.

- The 100 Best Books to Read in Kindergarten, which is part of the Library's Grow Up Reading initiative, has been expanded to include the participation of teachers through a classroom progress chart.
- Representatives from Plante Moran Financial Services will attend the November Board meeting to go over changes to our defined contribution pension investment policy and investment options.
- An article on the Library's various electronic formats will be included in the fall issue of West Bloomfield Today.
- The Michigan Library Association legislative update was reviewed.
- The department quarterly reports for the period of July-September 2013 were reviewed.

The Director's Report was received.
