a series of graphs. Revenues increased by 1.5% with property tax accounting for the majority of the increase. Expenditures were consistent with last year as the result of a continuing effort to contain costs.

The Library received an unmodified opinion, the highest that can be given, with no deficiencies or materials weaknesses in financial controls. It was noted that the health care post-retirement benefit for eligible employees is now fully funded. Mr. Kolbow reported that overall the position of the Library's finances is strong and stable. He attributed the Library's financial success to the diligent oversight provided by the Board, Director and Finance Manager.

The 2015-2016 fiscal year audit was accepted.

Public Comment

Jim Endies thanked the Library and the Friends of the Library for their assistance with the Sylvan Lake Little Library that has been established at the Ferndale Beach.

Director's Report

Director Bohrer reported on the following:

Board Meeting Minutes October 13, 2016

- An update on the current capital improvement projects at both facilities. The exterior and interior demolition at the Main Library began on October 3, 2016. A project schedule was shared which indicates all work will be completed by December 4, 2016.
- David Maraniss, author of Once a Great City, has been selected to be the 2017 Everyone's Reading featured author.
- The Township has decided to extend the current snow removal contract for another year. The Library continues to participate in the contract.
- Department quarterly reports for the period of July-September 2016.
- The 2016 Summer Reading/ Learning Challenge was successful with evaluation results indicating 90% of parents felt their child maintained or increased their reading skills as a result of participation.
- The endowment solicitation which includes letters from the Director and the President of the Friends of the Library will be mailed out in mid-October 2016.

The Director's Report was accepted.
