Director's Report

Director Bohrer reported on the following:

- The Michigan Library Association has developed substitute language to amend the Library Privacy Act which will be sent to the legislators who proposed Senate Bill 611.
- Additional single person study seating will be installed at the Main Library by the end of the fiscal year to meet demand.
- Marketing screens which provide promotional messaging are now operational at both facilities.
- The Library celebrated the life and vision of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. on Monday, January 20, 2020 by offering three well-attended programs, two of which were family-oriented.
- The Library initiated a new reader's advisory opt-in service called Personal Picks, which provides users with recommendations based on their reading history. Director Bohrer will bring additional information on the service to a future meeting.

Award Bid for Technology Upgrades to Presentation Equipment at Both Facilities

The bid proposal for technology upgrades to presentation equipment was sent to 35 local area vendors and an advertisement was placed in the Oakland Press on January

5, 2020. A mandatory walkthrough of both facilities was required before a bid would be accepted.

The IT staff recommended the qualified low bid vendor, Abel Electronics, at a cost of $84,624.00. Abel Electronics met all the specifications and provided all the necessary information. References contacted were all pleased with the vendor's work. Wayne State University designated Abel Electronics as a preferred vendor and have an ongoing contract with them to do work on campus.

MOTION:

MOVE TO AWARD THE BID FOR TECHNOLOGY UPGRADES TO PRESENTATION EQUIPMENT AT BOTH FACILITIES TO THE LOWEST QUALIFIED BID VENDOR, ABEL ELECTRONICS, AT A COST OF $84,624.00.
